

Third Prize

200 Meter Dash

by Jayden McDowell

As I rush towards the finish line,
I feel a wave of adrenaline.
I pass the finish line, you pass too.
My heart is pumping so fast as if it were two.

As the excitement overwhelms me,
"I win! Yippee!"
I climb up the stairs to accept my award
At this time. I swear no one was bored.

But don't forget,
The day isn't over yet.
For I still have two races to go.
But I don't care if I win or lose.
Of course that I know!
